ENGRAVER'S DEPARTMENT,

July 21st, 1882.

Sir

In accordance with the suggestions of the Hon Secretary, I have prepared the enclosed design for an attachment for the life saving medals, I have selected the anchor for a design as being both nautical and emblematical, As this attachment is more elaborate than is customary, and consequently will cost more, I propose making these medals  $1\frac{1}{2}$  in order to keep the cost of medals and attachments within the price named.

I am very respectfully
Your obedient servant
Chas. S. Barber
